Ask Me About My TRADEUP PROGRAM

As a Southwest Florida native, I began my love of golf at age 7 selling golf balls I found in the lakes of my community course. I was fortunate enough to grow up playing many of the area courses you may have already enjoyed.

As a former V.P. of Sales and V.P. of Construction for Lennar, my extensive knowledge of Lennar's sales and construction serves my clients well - both when buying new construction and when dealing with resales and rentals.

In 2004, I chose to leave the corporate world and began my career in general real estate where I have specialized in golf course properties, investment properties, apartment communities, and luxury rentals. My experience in the market both during the boom and the down turn has enabled me to assist buyers and sellers in all phases of home ownership.

My passion for golf and mind for business make me your best choice for real estate. I invite you to contact me to further discuss how I can help you buy, sell, or lease your Florida real estate. Give me a call or text today!
