

Raving Savings -Joint Marketing Program Agreement Form

This Joint Marketing Program is a way to increase awareness of your business and drive new customers to you. The Expert Real Estate Team would like to offer discounts and special offers to our past clients, which we refer to as "Raving Fans." This is being offered to your business at no cost to you, except for the discount or special offer you choose to provide our Raving Fans.

We will build a page with your business information, such as business name, address, telephone number. And we will incorporate your logo into the online coupon.

We see this as a great way to promote other local businesses, create new customers for you, and add value for our past clients.
